

Ralph Fennell Scholarship Award

Airlines Medical Directors Association

This international award is open to medical students, residents and junior aviation medical professionals who wish to present a scientific paper at the annual AMDA meeting in an area of aviation or occupational medicine relevant to the airline industry. This 15-minute presentation is to be given as part of the Scientific Program of the AMDA meeting.

The award consists of:

- A roundtrip travel certificate sponsored by United Airlines for travel between the nearest airport to the award recipient's residence and Dallas, TX, where the AMDA meeting will take place on May 5th 2018
- Two-night hotel accommodation
- AMDA award dinner

Interested candidates should send in a completed application by email to AMDA Secretary Dr. Petra Illig at petra.illig@gmail.com no later than November 15th, 2017, for consideration by the Awards Committee. The recipient of the award will be notified by December 15th, 2017.

Application Form (all fields must be filled in)

Name: _____

Country and city: _____

Year of graduation: _____

Degree(s) _____

Institution: _____

Title of paper: _____

Motivation (why you think you should receive the award):

Please attach abstract (no more than 250 words) in PDF format